New Gowns, Dresses and Wraps.

One of the reasons of our permanent and growing success is that we recognize Louisville as a great city entitled to all the advantages and opportunities afforded to shoppers of a metropolitan town. Louisville has outgrown the day of special events. Gowns, dresses and evening wraps are not a luxury now to be worn for only the occasion, but are necessities for the many functions always occurring in a great city. Our policy of receiving every day during the season the newest styles in gowns, dresses and evening wraps and always selling them at reasonable prices is appreciated and accounts for our enormously-growing sales in these lines. Our gowns and wraps at $25.00 should be compared with gowns sold at $40.00 and so on up the list. Those at $35.00, $40.00 and $50.00 are what are usually sold at $75.00 and $100.00.

FARMERS MEET

Convention of Kentucky State Grange At Frankfort.

CAUT. CALHOUN SENDS CHECK FOR KENTUCKY SOLDIERS.

MONROE COUNTY TO HOLD LOCAL OPTION ELECTION.

FARMER KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

AGREE NOT TO PLANT.

Bracken Farmers Will Not Raise Tobacco Next Year.

Augusta, Ky., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The action for keeping down a planting of a crop of tobacco in Bracken county is assuming large proportions. Under the leadership of N. J. Stroub, president of the Society of Equity for Bracken county, the merchants and all others interested in the tobacco situation take rather a gloomy view of the immediate future. The American Tobacco Company has withdrawn its buyer and closed their plant here, and it is more than likely that the county will not buy any of the new crop in this part of the State.

Farmers Join Association.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The twenty-seventh annual session of the Kentucky State Grange will begin a two days' session here to-morrow morning with about 150 delegates from various parts of the State.

Prof. P. P. Walcutt, Grand Master, State Lecturer Clayton and other officers of the Grange arrived to-night and a lengthy conference was held with the delegates who arrived to-day and to-night in the Senate chamber, where the State meeting is to be held. Commissioner of Agriculture Hubert Vreeland has been busy to-day receiving the visitors.

An elaborate programme has been arranged and a banquet will be given the evening following. Interesting topics will be discussed at the meetings. At the same time the Franklin County Farmers' Institute will be held in the hall of the House of Representatives and the lecturers of the Grange will deliver addresses at the Farmers' Institute.

MR. FISH BESTS MR. HARRIMAN

Secures Postponement of Illinois Central Meeting.

Agreement To Adjourn Until December 18.

Former President Claims Big Majority of Proxies.

PLEASED WITH THE RESULT.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Stuyvesant Fish early to-day secured a postponement of the Illinois Central stockholders' meeting until December 18. The Harriman people agreed to the adjournment, although they had previously been anxious to push matters as rapidly as possible.

Mr. Fish gave out a statement to-night in which he claims to have had a majority of from thirty to fifty thousand when the count of proxies was abandoned. The statement says: "Our victory is most gratifying and real. The best we could have hoped for under Judge Ball's modified order was to prevent an election of directors at this time. This has not only been accomplished, but we have also secured a definite adjournment until December 18."

"When on Saturday it became apparent to the Union Pacific party that our majority was so large that they could not win even if they secured every remaining proxy, their tactics for prolonging the session of the stockholders' meeting from day to day became apparent."

Authorized Agreement.

"Late Saturday night, realizing that the best interests of the Illinois Central railroad demanded that the present sessions should be closed, I authorized the making of an agreement between counsel, which speaks for itself. The agreement to adjourn gives me all that I could have gained by using the preponderance of my votes and constitutes an acknowledgment by the Harriman party of their failure to now elect directors, for if they held more proxies than I they would not have agreed to such an adjournment, but would have selected their directors to-morrow and ended the struggle."

Claims Clear Majority.

"During the process of official tally I consistently refrained from giving out figures through fear of misleading the public. The official count has been about four-fifths completed and being now closed until December 18. I can say with regard to that my information justifies the statement that so far as made it leaves me with a clear and certain majority of somewhere between 30,000 and 50,000 votes, which, in view of the Union Pacific party having hunted for proxies for two months before I mailed my first circular of September 21, is most satisfactory."

"From now on I shall pursue my quest for proxies with greater vigor and far better information than ever before, feeling sure of the support of the investing public who are interested in preserving the independence of the Illinois Central railroad."

Result of Conference.

The decision to adjourn the meeting was the result of a conference held at 3 o'clock this morning between William Nelson Cromwell for Mr. Harriman, and Judge E. H. Farrar, for Mr. Fish.

Mr. Cromwell was informed by Judge Farrar that the only agreement that could be reached was to accept the terms of Mr. Fish, which would be the adjournment until December 18, and a decision of court, if the Harriman people so desired, to determine the right to vote the 266,731 shares of stock against which a temporary injunction was issued by Judge Ball one week ago.

Fish's Terms Accepted.

After an extended conference Mr. Cromwell assented, and the following agreement was signed by him and by Judge Farrar:

"We recognize that the numerous and complicated legal questions involved in so over the issue of the meeting for a considerable period, and that no official determination by the inspectors or tellers as to the shares of stock represented in person and by proxy at said meeting has yet been reached one way or the other."

Former President in Control.

The proxy committee late last night had worked down to the letter "T". The proxies under the letter "V" has previously been considered, leaving only five letters still to be passed upon. Although none of those directly interested would give specific figures, it was understood that the total number of votes represented was not far from 400,000. Of this amount Mr. Fish, according to excellent authority, controlled about 250,000 and Mr. Harriman 210,000. There were not sufficient votes in the remaining letters upon which the committee still had to pass, to overcome this lead of Mr. Fish and it was evident that Mr. Harriman was beaten unless he could bring into the contest some portion of the 256,731 shares against which Judge Ball issued the injunction.

Judge Farrar Talks.

In discussing the situation Judge Farrar said: "The situation is now entirely up to Mr. Harriman and his attorneys. Whether or not they will fight the temporary injunction in the courts is for them to decide. I have not the most remote idea regarding their intentions. However, if they do not take action and fight the thing out of the courts before December 18, the injunction will still stand and no portion of the 266,731 shares can be voted."

"When I realized what the situation had really become, I went to Mr. Cromwell and we discussed the thing in general. No reference was made to the official count on any other condition of the proxies. He had his opinions, and I had mine. We drew the argument, which speaks for itself."

Mr. Cromwell's Statement.

Mr. Cromwell said: "An indefinite delay of the stockholders' meeting was inevitable. Challenges would be made regarding certain proxies and the probability of court proceedings made it clear that several weeks would be consumed without a decisive result and I, therefore, assented to conditions in general. No reference was made to the official count on any other condition of the proxies. He had his opinions, and I had mine. We drew the argument, which speaks for itself."

Mum As to Legal Proceedings.

When asked if he proposed to attack the temporary injunction issued by Judge Ball, Mr. Cromwell said that he was not prepared to make any statement regarding that matter at present, and he certainly would not make it, he said, with a laugh, in the presence of Judge Farrar.

The statement was positively made by one of Mr. Fish's advisors early in the day that the first overture came from Mr. Cromwell. Judge Farrar declared that this was incorrect, saying that he himself went to Mr. Cromwell. When asked if he had not been advised that his overture would be favorably received he merely laughed and would make no reply.

what course he would pursue in case he does receive notification from Attorney General Hays, he replied that he did not. On October 3 Mayor Bingham addressed a letter to the Attorney General, to the effect that former Mayor Grainger was holding a meeting at the Hotel Hamilton at the same time, and asking his opinion. To this the Attorney General replied that after looking up the law he was of the opinion that Mr. Grainger vacated his place on the Racing Commission when he accepted a place on the Louisville Board of Waterworks.

Mayor Bingham, on receipt of this, addressed another letter to the Attorney General, asking him to take such action as he deemed proper to compel Mr. Grainger to cease acting as a member of the Racing Commission. In answer to this, Attorney General Hays said that if anyone should call in question Mr. Grainger's authority to act as a member of the Racing Commission and make an official request to his office he would rule that Mr. Grainger was not entitled to hold the office, but that in the absence of such a request or of such notice, he felt that it would be premature to institute quo warranto proceedings against Mr. Grainger. He said that he felt less inclined to institute such an action because of the nearness of the end of his term of office.

R. L. Page, County Attorney, then wrote to the Attorney General for his authority to act in the matter.

TWO DRINKS COST NEGRO MORE THAN TEN PIECE.

Arrests Made on Charge Made by Henry Parrish Fill Station House to Its Capacity.

Upon the complaint of Henry Parrish, colored, of 1055 Twelfth street, that two drinks at a house said to be Julius Hunt's, at 719 Twelfth street, cost him a little more than $10 each, Patrolmen Webb and Connelly rounded up four negroes and one man. All were slated with various charges, but none could say anything but that they were innocent.

Two of the three saloonkeepers arrested yesterday, Charles Hoferie, 1233 Goss avenue, and William F. Keyer, at Eighteenth street and Broadway, on the charge of keeping their saloons open Sunday, had their cases continued in Police Court until Thursday.

Thomas Holliger, who was arrested at the railroad crossing on the street road, was fined $50 and said that he would appeal the case. Judge Blain told him that he would be cited before the License Board. A number of men said to have been in the saloons were presented on a charge of disorderly conduct.

IVY IN CHURCH POISONS.

[Ulrich, N. Y., Special to Chicago Tribune.] Ivy used in the decoration of the Methodist church in the village of New Haven has poisoned nearly half of the members of that congregation. Prominent women of the church gathered the ivy, which proved to be of the poisonous variety, and hung it gracefully in the church parlors, where a social was held. Arms, faces and bodies of at least two score parishioners became painfully swollen and many have been compelled to take to their beds.

An Increase of over 25% in Dividends To Policy Holders

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York has paid more in dividends to policy holders than any other company in the world. Since organization it has returned in dividends over $118,000,000. As a result chiefly of increased earnings and decreased expenses the annual dividends to policy holders this year, on policies issued in 1905, will be 25% to 30% more than in 1906.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

feels sure its policy-holders will be pleased with this great reduction in cost. The news may be doubly welcome now when increased cost in other lines seems everywhere the order of the day. If you have others for whose continued care you are concerned, you should learn for yourself how and how cheaply it can be guaranteed by the staunchest life insurance company in the world.

NOT LIBELOUS

Jury Quickly Decides Mrs. Mamie Glover's Suit.

TRUTH OF THE TIMES' PUBLICATION PROVEN.

WILL OF E. N. MAXWELL GOES TO PROBATE.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

It took the jury only ten minutes to reach a verdict for the defendant in the case of Mrs. Mamie Glover against the Louisville Times as the result of a trial in Judge Gordon's court of about two and a half hours in length. The plaintiff alleged libel, and asked $10,000 as damages. However, The Times, through its counsel, Col. Bennett H. Young, pleaded that its publication concerning Mrs. Glover was substantially correct, and therefore could not be described as libelous. It was this view which the jury adopted.

The publication was made November 5, 1906, and was, in effect, that Oscar C. Glover, husband of the plaintiff, a baggage man of the Southern Railway Company, had returned home to find his wife and Mr. E. Davis, a boarder, in a room together. Glover was armed with two pistols, and it was alleged that he told Davis and the woman that he would give them a few minutes to pray before opening fire. A few minutes later, he shot and killed Glover, and cousin, Al Glover, arrived on the scene and disarmed the husband from his intention. The affair occurred at 2884 Aiford avenue.

Report of Grand Jury.

The grand jury returned an indictment against Mack Donald, colored, on the charge of murder, the alleged victim being shot and killed Edward F. Clay, another negro. Other indictments were returned against John Ben Harrison, J. C. Johnson, Malicious Shooting—Poster Jems. Housebreaking—S. C. Whitlock and Edward Parrish. Knowingly Receiving Stolen Property—Abe Sale. Edward Barbour, charged with criminal assault, was dismissed.

Case to Jury This Morning.

In Judge Gordon's court yesterday afternoon testimony was heard in the case of Richard Fitzgerald vs. $5,000 as damages. While crossing the street at Seventh and Zane streets, December 23, 1906, Fitzgerald was run down by a car and severely injured about the body. Recklessness on the motorist's part was his contention, while contributory negligence was the company's claim. The case will be given to the jury this morning.

E. N. Maxwell's Will.

E. N. Maxwell, by his will, dated October 22, 1889, and probated yesterday, provides that his son, Norval C. Maxwell, "Gallery God Etiquette, or the Proper Conduct for Those Who Sit Under the Roof," is "Don't yell; no gentleman yells except when he is hurt." Rule No. 2 is equally as drastic. Delays between the behavior and the orchestra is meant those on the audience to entertain during the interval, and your help is not needed."

NO GENTLEMAN YELLS EXCEPT WHEN HE IS HURT.

SOME FEW DON'TS OUTLINED.

Gallery gods must behave or Chief Haager will get them. Too ardent and noisy appreciation of the good things on the stage will not be tolerated in the future, and the city's chief constabulary officer has issued another general order to that effect. The behavior, or rather the behavior of two boys Saturday night has culminated in the edict that restraint of enthusiasm must be practiced.

The only notice that Chief Haager will permit in the future is those on the stage and applause that conforms to the rules of ordinary decency. The first rule laid down in Chief Haager's new book, "Gallery God Etiquette, or the Proper Conduct for Those Who Sit Under the Roof," is "Don't yell; no gentleman yells except when he is hurt." Rule No. 2 is equally as drastic. Delays between the behavior and the orchestra is meant those on the audience to entertain during the interval, and your help is not needed."

I. C. DEFENDANT IN SUITS ON SAFETY APPLIANCE ACT.

Two cases against the Illinois Central Railroad Company on the charge of violation of the Federal safety appliance act, are being tried in the United States court. The suits were filed some time ago by Judge George Du Ruelle, District Attorney, seeking to collect penalties for failure to put coupling safety appliances on freight cars. The penalty for each offense is $100. Several similar suits have been filed against the company in Kentucky, but this will be the only case tried out as a test case. Luther F. Walcott, special attorney from the Department of Justice at Washington, is presently assisting Judge Du Ruelle in the case. He brought with him a miniature train, which was exhibited in court. The case will probably be tried today.

JOHN BAACON HUTCHINGS, JR.

The Well-Known Architect Associates His Son With Himself.

John Bacon Hutchings, architect, has associated with himself his son, John Bacon Hutchings, Jr., who is a graduate of Kentucky State College, a post-graduate of the University and a junior member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

His brother, William E. Hutchings, a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, a construction engineer of broad experience, will act as his consulting engineer. Mr. Hutchings, Jr., continues his office in the Columbia building, where it has been located for the last 25 years.

Bar Association Meeting.

The Louisville Bar Association held its regular October meeting yesterday afternoon in Judge Miller's court room. Only a few attorneys were present. Business was transacted. Adjournment was taken until December.

Assumed Liability—Where a carrier placed his car at a siding not its own, for the purpose of receiving freight, it thereby assumed the liability for the freight, and is bound as much as if it had been upon its own siding or at its freight station. It is in the position that the plaintiff, for the purpose of carrying its freight, had placed its goods at any point, that it assumes the liability of the carrier.
